

FINANCIAL SERVICES
INNOVATION COALITION

Why Congress Should Postpone Implementation of Opportunity Zones and Consider Other Options

Friday December 13, 2019
1:00 - 2:30 pm EST
Rayburn House Office Building - Room 2168
Washington, DC

LUNCH WILL BE SERVED

A discussion on why the implementation of Opportunity Zones should be postponed and why there are better options to help target communities

The Financial Services Innovation Coalition (FSIC) invites you to join us for a roundtable discussion titled: "Why Congress Should Postpone Implementation of Opportunity Zones and Consider Other Options". This discussion will be held Friday, December 13, 2019 at The Rayburn House Office Building, Room 2168, Washington, DC from 1:00 - 2:30 pm EST.

In specific, this panel will discuss problems with the current Opportunity Zone rules and solutions being introduced through legislation to ensure individuals and business owners living in target communities actually benefit from projects that offer significant tax breaks to developers and investors.

MODERATOR

Kevin B. Kimble, Founder and Executive Director – Financial Services Innovation Coalition (FSIC)

PANELISTS

Claiborne Booker, Co-Founder - InAffinity Networks LLC

Arthur Sidney, Chief of Staff – Rep. Hank Johnson (D-GA 4th District)

Earl Peek, CPA, Founder and Managing Principal – Diamond Ventures

Dr. Charles Steele, Jr., President and Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC)

David Rixter, President and CEO - HCR Consulting L.L.C.

Please RSVP to Brady Buckner at bbuckner@fsicoalition.org.
We look forward to seeing you there,
Financial Services Innovation Coalition