

Financial Services Innovation Coalition (FSIC) Founder Condemns Violence at Capitol Building in Washington DC During Trump Supporter Riot

Kevin B. Kimble, Esq. the Founder and CEO of FSIC issued the following statement today:

“We at FSIC were dismayed and disheartened by the violence at the Capitol on January 6, 2021. The irresponsible and irrational stoking of anger and distrust of the American people by disingenuous politicians has finally reached a boiling point.

It is incumbent on all of us to be honest and earnest in our political discourse. There is no doubt that we face difficult and complicated problems whose solutions may force difficult choices. Therefore, we must be extra careful to be respectful and honest with each other.

While the perpetrators of today’s actions and the political leaders who inflamed their anger must be punished, our focus must be on the future and finding a way to come together.”
